So sorry for the late notice. I am not able to attend tonight.

If it is possible to mention this during the meeting -- recently CM O'Farrell held a press conference regarding nightclubs in Hollywood. We are very engaged with LAPD on this issue and making sure that all nightclubs in Hollywood obey their CUPs.

As folks may be aware, the Cashmere club will be the subject of a public hearing this Thursday, October 22nd, at 11:00 AM at City Hall (Room 1020).

This is a Public Hearing held by the Office of Zoning Administration regarding the Conditional Use Permit at this location. The purpose of the hearing is to determine possible abatement of any nuisance at this location, or a possible revocation of the permit to operate.

The hearing notice is attached. It is open to the public if people would like to come and offer thoughts on the matter. They can also submit in writing to* Tim Fargo at the Department of City Planning: tim.fargo@lacity.org <tim.fargo@lacity.org> or (213) 978-1458 <%28213%29%20978-1458>.*

Thanks!!

Hollywood tries to balance the bustle of its club scene with a surge in residents

AL SEIB / LOS ANGELES TIMES

Violent crime in Hollywood has increased 21% this year through Oct. 10, compared with the same period last year. Above, LAPD officers in the district in January.

BY ALICE WALTON

October 19, 2015, 3:31 a.m.

It was shortly after midnight Aug. 22 when the Los Angeles Police Department got the call about a brawl at the Cashmere nightclub in Hollywood.

When officers arrived, they found Jose Manuel Silva Nieves, a 20-year-old who went by DJ Steez, collapsed on the floor. He was taken to a hospital and died the next day. Police say the DJ was severely beaten during a fight.

His death has become a symbol in Hollywood.

Cashmere, located next to the Hollywood Wax Museum and not far from Ripley's Believe It or Not, is one of numerous clubs that over the last decade have brought a bustling nightlife back to the famed district.

But Hollywood is also seeing a surge of new development that is bringing new residents into the district. And that leaves city officials trying to balance a robust entertainment scene with the new condos and apartments.

A death at a Hollywood nightclub is rare, but LAPD Capt. Peter Zarcone said intoxicated patrons are responsible for a good share of the community's violent episodes. Violent crime in Hollywood has increased 21% this year through Oct. 10, compared with the same period last year, with aggravated assaults up 36.8%, part of a citywide crime surge.

Los Angeles City Councilman Mitch O'Farrell, who represents Hollywood, warned club operators that city officials would go after businesses that violate their operating permits. The announcement coincided with citations for Cashmere, which is accused of violating the city's municipal code by allowing unpermitted construction and electrical work.

An attorney for the club said the allegations are without merit. A public hearing is set for Thursday.

Cashmere is not alone. Department of Building and Safety records show the Sound Nightclub on Las Palmas Avenue has had 10 code violations since 2003, the most recent coming this month when it was accused of doing construction without permits or inspections.

The new attention from O'Farrell is not the result of an increase in complaints. In fact, Zarcone said complaints against clubs remain flat. But Halloween, typically the busiest night of the year in Hollywood, is less than two weeks away. Police plan to deploy an additional 300 officers to the district that night.

Officials also say that with more residents moving into Hollywood's commercial core, they need to make sure clubs are following the rules.

"Hollywood must be a neighborhood that is safe, clean and hospitable to its residents," O'Farrell said.

Since 2000, the number of residential units in Hollywood has tripled, according to the Hollywood Business Improvement District, and the community's estimated population has increased to 7,650 from 2,550.

Community leaders say the clubs played a major role in Hollywood's revitalization after years of decline in the 1970s, '80s and '90s.

"When nobody was investing in Hollywood, the clubs were here and they were kind of the first phase of revitalizing Hollywood," said Leron Gubler, president and chief executive of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce.

"Now that the area is improving, we do have a few clubs that are causing problems," he added.

Resident Thomas Meredith keeps a log tracking noise violations and fistfights.

"These nightclubs have no regard for people who are essentially trying to live a residential life in Hollywood, and they're held hostage to nightclubs across the street," Meredith said.

Others in Hollywood are not as critical of the clubs, with some saying they are an important part of the community. But they say the city needs to make sure the clubs are following the rules.

Even when the city does take action against a club, there's no guarantee that the situation will be remedied.

In 2012, fire inspectors found more than 1,000 customers inside the Hollywood Supper Club — about double its capacity. The club, authorities alleged, also had illegal fireworks and a trapeze artist swinging from the ceiling over the crowded dance floor. Two years later, the operators of the Hollywood Supper Club pleaded no contest to allegations of overcrowding, use of an open flame, illegal wiring and use of an unpermitted structure. The business was placed on 36 months of probation.

This summer, LAPD investigators determined the club continued to violate the city's municipal code. Officials at the Supper Club declined to comment.

Hollywood resident Paul Zambito said there must be a compromise in which clubgoers can have a good time without disrupting the lives of the people who live nearby.

"It's unnecessary that someone on the 10th floor should be able to hear the exact lyrics of the song in the club," he said.

"That tells me that you could lower it enough and the people in the club could still be able to hear and dance to the music."

Captain Z,

Thank YOU

Val

Gentlemen,

I want thank each and everyone of you for your continued and relentless efforts addressing the problematic nightclubs in Hollywood. Your collaborate efforts are paying dividends. In the next few weeks, Cashmere, The Supper Club and Vaocluse Club are going to hearings which could potentially result in the closure of the clubs. In addition the problematic valet service in front of The Playhouse has already been shutdown. The Hollywood Hookah has been convicted three times of several violations and has pending revocation of permits hearings. All this has occurred because of a team effort between the men and women you supervise. All involved have played a significant role in the process. Please reach out to the men and women of both units and recognize their efforts.

As we have discussed, moving forward it is imperative that HED and VICE units support each other in our efforts to address VICE activity in the HED area. We are making great progress, but there is still work to be done. Please remain vigilant and focused. Our goals are to provide a safe environment, with thriving businesses that follow the laws and provisions of their respective licenses. I look forward to continuing to work together to accomplish this.

Thank you for a job well done.

Thanks Kerry, I will work with SLO's on getting the signs posted.

On a different note, I was wondering anyone from BID office was attending the Zoning Administration Hearing for the Cashmere Night Club on Oct 22 at 11:00 AM. It is my understanding that the Zoning Administrator like to hear from the public and BID's on the issues related to the night clubs. I have attached the hearing notice.

Thanks

Alex, here is a draft of what we are looking at for candidates for these signs. As I mentioned, does not include underground. I've ordered 40 signs, so there should be more than enough. I will have them by a week from Monday.

Sir if possible I'd like to add this location as well, we will probably not get to all but we will work with our time restraints. ABC will also be here and we are trying to get the fire inspector involved as well. We will be in the office after 6 pm and the other entities are showing up at 8 PM if you'd like to meet us at that time... Thank you again...

Hollywood nightclubs put on notice for bad behavior

Alice WaltonContact Reporter

Councilman Mitch O'Farrell, joined by representatives from Building and Safety, the LAPD and the city attorney's office, warns Hollywood club owners about violating the terms of their operating permits. (Alice Walton / Los Angeles Times)

Hollywood nightclubs that serve drunken patrons, admit minors and fill the dance floor beyond capacity should be prepared to answer to the city's building inspectors, a Los Angeles city councilman said Thursday.

Standing on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, Councilman Mitch O'Farrell warned nightclub owners that the city's building inspectors would cite them for any violations of their operating permits.

One club already facing those repercussions is Cashmere. The club has had 18 permit violations since July, according to Frank Bush, executive officer of the Department of Building and Safety. A breakdown of those violations was not immediately available.

A public hearing on the violations is scheduled for Oct. 22, according to Bush.

In August, disc jockey Jose Silva, who was also known as "DJ Steez," was at Cashmere when he became involved in a brawl. The 20-year-old had collapsed by the time police arrived. He later died at a hospital.

An attorney for Cashmere said the charges are without merit. "There is a culture of rogue behavior that exists among some of our nightlife establishments in Hollywood," O'Farrell said. "This culture is diminishing the quality of life for people who live here and we are determined to bring them into compliance or shut them down."

"Nothing has been adjudicated in court so obviously we're looking forward to our day in court," attorney Michael Kolodzi said.

Permit violations at nightclubs in the Hollywood area are not new. City Atty. Mike Feuer filed a probation violation against the Supper Club on Wednesday, accusing it of violating conditions of a zoning code. A woman answering the phone at Supper Club declined to comment.

Two years ago, Supper Club pleaded no contest to overcrowding, use of an open flame, use of a structure without a permit, illegal wiring, obstructed exits and storage of combustible materials, according to a spokesman for the city attorney. The company was placed on probation for 36 months. A hearing is scheduled for Oct. 20 in Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Halloween is typically the busiest night of the year in Hollywood, with an additional 300 officers patrolling the area, said Los Angeles Police Department Capt. Pete Zarcone.

"A significant portion of violent crime in Hollywood would be attributed to public drunkenness," Zarcone said. "People get over-intoxicated all up and down Hollywood Boulevard."

Due to the upcoming hearing and our department's ongoing investigation of the negligent and unlawful operation of the "Cashmere" establishment, I believe it would enhance our chances of attaining a successful revocation and be in the best interest of both of our respective agencies if we were to conduct a joint inspection of the involved premises at a time when there is a highÂ probability for observing CUP and ABC violations. Our Office is set to perform an inspection of the "Cashmere" premises on Friday evening at approximatelyÂ 2200-hours (10PM) and would benefit greatly from your participation in the endeavor.

Â

The prospective itinerary is for your staff to meet with the Hollywood Vice team at Hollywood Station at approximatelyÂ 2130-hours (9:30 PM) on Friday (October 10th) evening. We will make introductions, assign tasks, establish goals and delegate responsibilities in a briefing that is to be heldÂ in the Vice Office at Hollywood Station (Address: 1358 N Wilcox Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90028). Hey Ben

Hope all is well. I've been doing some C.U.P. admin on Supper Club and all 7 of the new clubs that will be a 3.18. I'm pulling the ownership, tax permits and C.U.P. for each location. As it looks right now, the only one with ABC conditions is the Playhouse. They have a prior 23804, 24200 A&B and 25632. They took a 15 day hit and $3000 fine from 2/13. I'm waiting on current conditions from ABC.

Do you guys use the ACE Forms? I'll bring my book out next Friday if you don't.

Hey Mr Harris,

We do use ACE forms frequently and all of our staff is well stocked with books so you shouldn't have to bring any extra when you come out next Friday. Regarding the Playhouse ABC violations, I was able to see that there had been enforcement but wasn't exactly sure who the investigating agency was. I'm assuming it was ABC investigators that found them in violation but I'm not totally sure. I don't know if anyone from your office has done after-hours operations or enforcement there but I thought that could be a possibility as well as I know it wasn't our Office that conducted the investigation that resulted in that punitive action. The Complaint Application exemplar you sent me was excellent, I will be sure to disseminate it among our investigators so that we can improve our chances of obtaining successful filings and prosecutions. Thanks again Detective Harris, that information will be a huge help. We are going to operate Cashmere, Supper Club and Playhouse tonight for drunk service and CUP adherence, I will be sure to forward you our results.

Subject: PLEASE ADVISE ASAP: List of Infractions/Code Violations for Cashmere

Hello LAPD, LADBS and DCP:

In gearing up for Thursday's 2PM press conference re: nightclubs in Hollywood, I am hoping you can provide me with an additional piece(s) of information.

We would like to have on hand a list of violations at the Cashmere club -- CUP violations, citations, infractions, etc.

While we will definitely be sensitive with what information is shared -- keeping in mind the upcoming hearing -- we would like to have as much background information as possible regarding the "universe" of violations at this club.

Please advise, and thanks again --

Subject: PLEASE ADVISE ASAP: List of Infractions/Code Violations
for Cashmere

Hello LAPD, LADBS and DCP:

In gearing up for Thursday's 2PM press conference re: nightclubs in Hollywood, I am hoping you can provide me with an additional piece(s) of information.

We would like to have on hand a list of violations at the Cashmere club -- CUP violations, citations, infractions, etc.

While we will definitely be sensitive with what information is shared -- keeping in mind the upcoming hearing -- we would like to have as much background information as possible regarding the "universe" of violations at this club.

Please advise, and thanks again --

Subject: Thank You + Hollywood Nightlife Meeting Tues 10/20, 2PM

All:

Thank you so much for your time this morning. I wanted to piggyback on LAPD's invitation to the "Hollywood Nightlife Meeting." This is a regular meeting of nightclubs and nightlife establishments in the area, along with LAPD, City Attorney, CD13 and other pertinent entities. The goal of the meetings is to ensure a sense of cooperation from the various establishments.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, October 20th, at 2:00 PM at Dave & Buster's, located at Hollywood & Highland.

LADBS, Planning -- if you are able to send a representative, I know LAPD would be very appreciative and I think it would definitely help to achieve the sense of cooperation and communication we are collectively building.

Please let me, Captain Zarcone (peter.zarcone@lapd.lacity.org <mailto:peter.zarcone@lapd.lacity.org>) or Lieutenant Baez (26623@lapd.lacity.org <mailto:26623@lapd.lacity.org>) know if you are interested or available to attend.

Thanks again for your time and hard work.

Dan,

I think it is OK to mention that a sexual assault of a female patron occurred last fall and the death of the 20 year old DJ occurred in August. Be advised that the DJ's cause of death is as of yet undetermined. It may not have been the fight, but toxicological. A final determination by the coroner has not been made.

ADVISORY: O'FARRELL TO ADDRESS STATE OF NIGHTCLUB

CULTURE IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD - Los Angeles City Councilmember Mitch O'Farrell, joined by the Los Angeles Police Department, will make a statement regarding recent permit violations at a popular nightclub venue, while also encouraging other nightlife establishments to strive for a safer Hollywood that lives up to its world-class brand.

O'Farrell will comment on these recent permit violations, and dangerous incidents related to the nightclub culture, during a press event on Thursday, October 8, 2 p.m., on the southeast corner of Hollywood Blvd and Las Palmas Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90028.

The Councilmember will be joined by a representative from the Los Angeles Police Department [PLEASE CONFIRM], the Department of Building and Safety [PLEASE CONFIRM], and members of the Hollywood community.

When operating a club in the City of Los Angeles, establishments must receive a conditional use permit from the City. The permit dictates various guidelines for operation, which could include hours of operation, age restrictions, alcohol and food sales, capacity, and promotions. Many clubs in Hollywood have been cited for violating these types of conditions.

In August 2015, a 20-year old male died at a Hollywood nightclub, and in a separate incident last Fall, investigators say a female college student was sexually assaulted.
